SEE HOW HIGH YOU CAN FLY WITH THESE KITE FACTS.

Did You Know?

- ✂ A kite is made of paper, plastic or cloth stretched across a light, often wooden frame. They fly high in the air at the ends of long strings.
- ✂ Kites come in many sizes and shapes. Many simple kites are flat and shaped like diamonds. More complex kites might be shaped like boxes or even like animals.
- ✂ Getting a kite into the air can take two people. One person holds the kite facing the wind. Another person stands some distance away and holds the kite's string. If the string is tight, the wind will push against the kite and raise it. The wind's force keeps the kite up.
- ✂ Many children and adults fly kites for fun. Some form clubs that hold kite-flying events. In many Asian countries, kite flying is part of festivals.
- ✂ People flew the first kites about 3,000 years ago, probably in China. These kites were strips of bamboo covered with silk.
- ✂ Scientists used kites to study weather. In the American colonies in 1752, Benjamin Franklin flew a kite with a key attached in a thunderstorm. The key drew electricity from the storm, proving that lightning was a form of electricity. Such experiments are dangerous, however. Ordinarily kites should never be flown during bad weather.
- ✂ Kites teach aerodynamics—how solid objects move through the air. Inventors of early airplanes based many of their ideas on kites.
- ✂ Military forces have used kites, too. During the early 1900s, kites carried cameras and even soldiers to spy on enemies. During World War II (1939–45), soldiers practiced shooting down planes by shooting at kites.

KITE HUMOR

I asked the kite if it wanted to travel the world; it replied, "I'm already on cloud nine!"

Did you hear about the kite that got a promotion? It really knew how to raise its altitude!

I asked my kite for advice, and it told me to "let it go" and enjoy the breeze!

Getting my kite stuck in a tree is not my favorite thing in the world. But it's up there.

What material makes the best kites? Flypaper.
